THIS COURT HEREBY FINDS AND DETERMINES THAT:

A. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference to Bankruptcy Judges of the District Court for the Southern District of New York, dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.).

B. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(P).

C. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1410(1) and (3).

D. These chapter 15 cases have been properly commenced by the duly appointed Spanish Foreign Representative.

E. This Court has the authority to grant the Provisional Relief requested by the Motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 362, 1510, 1519, 1521, and 1522.

F. The Provisional Relief is urgently needed to protect the assets of the Spanish Debtors and the interests of their creditors as required by 11 U.S.C. § 1519(a).

G. The interests of the Spanish Debtors' creditors and other interested entities, including the Spanish Debtors, are sufficiently protected in the Court's grant of the Provisional Relief, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 1522(a).

H. The Provisional Relief is warranted under 11 U.S.C. § 1519(e).

I. The Spanish Foreign Representative has demonstrated a substantial likelihood that the Spanish Foreign Proceedings are entitled to recognition as foreign main proceedings and that the Provisional Relief will be granted on a final basis upon such recognition as foreign main proceedings.

J. Irreparable harm will result to the Spanish Debtors, their creditors, and their estates if the Provisional Relief is not granted on an expedited basis. Pending the chapter 15 recognition hearing, the Provisional Relief is required to ensure the fair, efficient, and centralized administration of the Spanish Debtors' assets and prevent individual creditors and other persons and entities from depleting or impairing the assets of the Spanish Debtors to the detriment of their creditor body as a whole.

K. Granting the Provisional Relief will preserve the status quo and not result in significant harm to nonmoving parties. Any harm that conceivably could result to nonmoving parties by granting the Provisional Relief is less than the irreparable harm that would result to the Spanish Debtors and their creditors if the Provisional Relief is not granted.

L. Granting the Provisional Relief will serve the public interest in that, among other things, the Provisional Relief is necessary to realize the intent and objectives of chapter 15 in this case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1501(a).

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Provisional Relief is granted effective immediately on an interim basis pending final hearing on recognition of the Spanish Foreign Proceedings as foreign main proceedings as set forth below.

2. Pending disposition of the chapter 15 petitions and the request for the recognition of the Spanish Foreign Proceedings as foreign main proceedings, under sections 1519(a)(3) and 1521(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code, no person or entity may, among other things and without limitation:

- commence or continue any legal proceeding (including, without limitation, any judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or regulatory proceeding, or arbitration) or action against the Spanish Debtors in the United States, their assets, located in the United States, or that seeks to execute against the Spanish Debtors' assets, or the proceeds thereof;
- enforce in the United States any judicial, quasi-judicial, administrative or regulatory judgment, assessment or order, or arbitration award against the Spanish Debtors;
- commence or continue any legal proceeding or action to create, perfect, or enforce any lien, setoff, or other claim against the Spanish Debtors or against any of their assets, or the proceeds thereof, located in the United States; or
- exercise any control over the Spanish Debtors' assets located in the United States except as authorized by the Spanish Debtors in writing.

3. Due to the nature of the relief requested, no security is required under Rule 65(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable in these chapter 15 cases by Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, if applicable, or otherwise.

4. The Spanish Debtors are entrusted with the administration and realization of all of the Spanish Debtors' assets located in the United States and is established as the exclusive authority to administer the Spanish Debtors' assets and affairs in the United States.

5. The Spanish Foreign Representative is hereby granted on an interim basis, subject to a final hearing, the rights, powers, protections, privileges, and immunities of a trustee in a bankruptcy in the United States during the provisional relief period available pursuant to section 1519(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. No action taken during such period by the Spanish Foreign Representative, or her agents, representatives, advisors, or counsel, in preparing, disseminating, applying for, implementing or otherwise acting in furtherance of or in connection with the Spanish Foreign Proceedings, this Order, these chapter 15 cases, any adversary proceeding, or any further proceeding commenced herewith shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of the immunity afforded such person under section 1510 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The right and power to transfer, encumber, or otherwise dispose of any assets of the Spanish Debtors is vested in, and any attempt to transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of assets of the Spanish Debtors in the United States by any other person or entity is prohibited.

7. Nothing in this Order shall enjoin a police or regulatory act of a governmental unit, including a criminal action or proceeding to the extent set forth in sections 362(b) and 1521(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. All Objections, if any, to the Motion or the relief requested therein that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled as announced to this Court at the hearing on this Motion, or by stipulation filed with this Court, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby overruled on the merits.

9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights, or disputes arising from or related to the Motion or the implementation of this Order.
